

Google Sync

About

- Get calendar alerts. Using your BlackBerry® smartphone's native calendar, you can now access your Google calendar even when you don't have network coverage, and be alerted for upcoming appointments with sound or vibration.
- Always in sync. Your calendar stays synchronized whether you access it from your computer or your phone. You can add or edit entries right on your BlackBerry® smartphone or on your Google Calendar on the web. Synchronize one or many calendars at the same time.
- Synchronize your contacts. Get your Gmail contacts quickly and easily to your BlackBerry smartphone. With Sync, you can have access to your address book at any time and place that you need it.

How Does it Work?

- To use Google Sync, click the Google Sync icon on the home screen of your Phone.
- Alternatively you can open the calendar application on your phone and click the thumb wheel once to pop up the menu. You'll find the "Google Sync" entry at the top of the menu.
